

The Becket Pageant for London

17th -18th June 2022 (11am to 4pm)

The Livery Crafts Fair

SHOWCASING SKILLS ANCIENT AND MODERN

Inspired by the guildsmen who staged the original pageant of 1519, and Becket's origins as the son of a City merchant, Guildhall Yard will be styled as an immersive 16th century experience with period entertainers and a vibrant Livery Crafts Fair. Visitors will be invited to imagine themselves as Tudor Londoners, learn about a pivotal period in British history, sample a specially brewed Becket Beer! - and watch skilled livery craft displays in an open air, Covid-secure environment.

Entrance will be free to the public.

Up to eighteen Livery Companies will showcase the important contribution of the guilds past and present to the success of the City, whilst providing practical demonstrations of their individual trades, including the evolution from old technologies to new.

The Worshipful Company of Fan Makers has a stall,so please come and support us.

There will be an opportunity to purchase hand crafted merchandise direct from the stall-holders.
